Description

Perched on the shores of the Saanich Inlet, and just 30 minutes from downtown Victoria, Morningside Estate offers the ultimate in luxury accommodation in a truly unique environment.

Designed in the style of Frank Lloyd Wright, the main house is almost 7000 square feet with more than 100 windows, all designed to provide the ultimate view of the truly awesome natural setting. The house and the furnishings are all representative of the signature architecture of one of the worlds greatest architects.

Morningside Estate is the premier vacation home on Vancouver Island. In the past, it was the feature home for Canada's Next Top Model show and was also featured on HGTV's Homes By Design.

Don't let the publicity fool you though...you will be coming into a tranquil, quiet setting that really lives up to the Super, Natural billing of British Columbia. The ocean is less than a stones throw from the house where you will be treated by glimpses of wildlife and the odd passing sail boat.

Out on the deck there is a pool, hot tub and waterfall with plenty of room for sunning, entertaining and enjoying the long, lazy summers.

Be sure to book early as Morningside Estate is almost always fully booked during the peak summer season.
