Description

Indulge your fantasies on your own 10 acre private Island! A beautiful beach cottage, a boat and a sandy beach is as close to a tropical paradise as you can find. Imagine the privacy of your own sandy beach shaded by towering coconut palms. Features DescriptionA weathered boardwalk takes you from the dock to the house. Beautifully crafted like a ship of tropical hardwoods, the house is built in the traditional "Old Florida" style. The expansive decks and porches are separated from the cathedral ceilings, spiral staircase and interesting nooks and crannies by screened cypress louvers that capture cool sea breezes. Seabird is stocked with all the toys you need for a week on the water, including a 19', 90 h.p. runabout, Sunfish sailboat, masks, fins, fishing gear, and towing tube. Bring your camera and swimsuit (or leave it at home) everything else is provided for you; from beach towels to board games. No amenity has been overlooked including a remarkable collection of island literature, an extensive library of Caribbean and classical music, and a music loft complete with piano. An indoor/outdoor cassette/CD stereo as well as a TV/VCR is provided. The maximum number of occupants is eight. There are two double bedrooms with private bathrooms on the main level, and four bunk beds in an upstairs sleeping loft, which has its own bathroom. There are also two outdoor showers. A sophisticated solar energy system provides power for all electrical needs, including such amenities as ceiling fans, telephone, a microwave, and coffee bean grinder, but there is no air conditioning to distract from the appreciation of a coexistence with nature. The 20,000 gallon cistern collects fresh water and is decorated with shells, broken glass and coral rock imbedded in its sides....a work of art in itself! Recycling utilizes the bountiful resources...seaweed is harvested and composted, gray waste water irrigates plants and fruit trees which provide tropical delights to Island guests. Feeding the table scraps to the fish under the docks, which are a delight to snorkelers, can save a trip to the fish market for a succulent snapper on the dinner table! Surrounding DescriptionWander along jungle trails to discover exotic tropical plants and flowers. Watch the antics of the pelicans, herons, ibis, ospreys and other avian residents of the bird sanctuary which co-exist with you on the Island. Toast the sunset from the Widow's Walk high above the treetops. A five minute boat ride takes you into Marathon for fine dining, shopping or nightlife. Key West is an hour's drive.
