Description

An imposing and impressive villa, this holiday destination leaves nothing to chance. Built mainly of wood with steep roofs overlooking the large oblong pool from two storeys, this seven-bedroom villa has all the luxuries combined with a feeling of being at one with nature in a tranquil setting. Attractive artefacts and antique-style furniture lend an Asian feel to the whole property. Outside there is plenty of opportunity to sunbathe on the loungers, or catch a bit of shade under the tropical umbrellas or even under a garden Sala set high above the pool where steps lead down into the inviting warm water. Large terraces, a superb tropical garden, and large living areas offer plenty of space for you and your group to enjoy the holiday of a lifetime.

LOCATION

Set on the eastern side of the south coast of Koh Samui tranquillity is guaranteed with the sea and sand just 100 meters away. For those seeking a tourist beach there is Lamai Beach just 12 km up the east coast. Here there are marine activities in the islands second largest beach with long stretches of powdery tropical sands, beach cafes and massage parlors along with the usual seaside sports. Another similar distance up this coast takes you to the main town and beach of Chaweng. Closer to hand there are waterfalls and elephant trekking to really get into the heart of this coconut-strewn island.

VACATION VILLA ACCOMMODATION

Bedrooms

The seven bedrooms are all individually styled and have air-conditioning along with ensuite bathrooms. Five of them have four-poster beds allowing mosquito nets to be draped artistically. Six of the bedrooms are double while the seventh is a large ensuite twin room making family permutations easier.

Bathrooms

The seven ensuite bathrooms are augmented by an eighth guest bathroom making entertaining, especially for swimming visitors, that much more practical. One bathroom has a large bathtub, whilst they all have wash hand basins, toilets and showers.

Dining Room

Dining options abound around the property with al Fresco being the preferred one. A garden sala has a banqueting table for fourteen people, where you can order up a special feast from the resorts chef. There are also many relaxing areas to take afternoon tea, and when the cooking gets too much there is the option of the restaurant just close by.

Kitchen

The fully equipped kitchen has all the conveniences of the modern Western-style version but is hand-built in a style that befits the property. There is a built-in oven with stovetops and extractor above, plenty of cupboard space and a full-size fridge/freezer for all those holiday provisions.

Living Rooms

There are many lounging and living areas both indoors and outdoors. With a party of fourteen, it is easy to have people relaxing in different areas around the villa. There is of course a lounge with a wicker suite overlooking the flat screen TV with wonderful views of the garden.
