Description

Bungalows Lydia is a small Mexican hotel on the Pacific coast of Mexico -- a tropical paradise on a truly spectacular coastline. The property has been in Senora Lydia's family for generations, so Bungalows Lydia offers you a glimpse into a time long past, a glimpse into a mini Garden of Eden.

Bungalows Lydia occupies a headland above two hidden beaches. Behind, lush jungle stretches for miles. Here, a tiny stream courses down to the Pacific ocean, giving Bungalows Lydia unbelievable beach access and seclusion. If you love sea, sky, sand, and nature, please come see this idyllic spot.

Bungalows Lydia offers a variety of accommodations. In the main hacienda, two apartments dazzle with 180-degree ocean views, and four cozy suites overlook the North Beach. The Master Suite nestles in next to the hacienda, and the Sunflower Suite stands above the South Beach. A grand palapa and swimming pool perch on a cliff just above the surf.

Bungalows Lydia is located two miles outside San Francisco (aka "San Pancho"), a village 45 minutes north of Puerto Vallarta. Please look at our photos, check out our rates, and send us your questions. We would love to hear from you.
