Description

If you are an artist or photographer, you may wish to bring your equipment on holiday to capture the beauty of the scene that presents itself to you as soon as you enter this villa. Overlooking your infinity edge swimming pool measuring approximately 4m X 6m, the view is picture perfect with a jungle foreground sparsely dotted with Thai style dwellings, palm trees, and topical hardwood trees, leading down a valley to a sandy bay topped off with a wooded headland. Beyond are the warm waters of the Andaman Sea leading out to islands in the distance. At night, the scene is enhanced by rows of fishing boats lighting up the horizon. A garden sala offers a double mattress with cushions to lie and gaze at the wonders of nature, and even a bench seat in the pool, either side of spouting fish statues, faces the view of a lifetime. The bedroom and living room are in separate units either side of the pool and offer the highest standard of accommodation with 24-hour pampering from the resort-staff who attend to your every need.

LOCATION

The Pimalai Resort and your villa are on the west coast of Koh Lanta Yai in Krabi Province. A speedboat service from the mainland brings you to the resorts private jetty during calm weather or to a more convenient location if the seas threaten to be a little choppy. Two grand communal swimming pools, a fitness centre, spa, tennis courts, and beach sports offer a complete holiday activity routine. The resort is peaceful, and tranquil so if you crave noise then you can rent transport to take you north on the island where more beaches, some with accompanying villages, are waiting to be discovered. As a tourist destination island, everything from elephant trekking, Thai boxing, diving, to postcard buying is available around the low-key yet attractive holiday paradise.
